

About Startups.be | Scale-Ups.eu

Long

In 2018, Startups.be and Scale-ups.eu joined forces to strengthen their impact on the Belgian tech ecosystem. Together, they've become the go-to resource for tech entrepreneurs, helping the most promising startups and scale-ups accelerate their growth while boosting Belgium's tech and innovation industry.

Scale-ups.eu stands as Belgium's leading growth platform, connecting Europe's top startups and scale-ups with investors, corporate buyers, global partners, and key stakeholders. Through these connections, they fast-track innovation and foster collaboration with high-tech companies.

Their initiatives include organizing major events like the renowned SuperNova tech and innovation festival and An Evening with President Barack Obama, as well as partnering with European startup associations through SuperNova on Tour.
